

Training Series:

Tools for Helping Challenging Youth

Dr. Lisa Cohen Bennett

This training series will cover tools for working with youth who are challenged by emotional difficulties. We suggest that you attend all sessions.

July 14th	Child Development
July 28th	Separation and Attachment Milestones
August 4th	Grief and Loss
August 18th	External Stressors
August 25th	How My Buttons Get Pushed: Countertransference
September 15th	Teen Culture
September 22nd	The Abuse Spectrum
October 20th	Abandonment
November 17th	Parents of Addiction
December 8th	Anger Management for Youth and Staff
2011 Dates TBD	Self-Injury, I and II

All trainings will occur from 9:30-12:30 at the
Fred Finch Youth Center
Training Institute
3800 Coolidge Avenue
Oakland

This workshop is open to those who work with foster youth in Alameda and Solano Counties. To register for this FREE workshop, please email trainings@fredfinch.org.

Dr. Bennett has been training Foster Parents, Probation Officers, Psychiatrists, Psychologists, Social Workers, Teachers and Group Home Staff around the country and in the San Francisco Bay Area for twenty years. She has worked in a variety of settings with Severely Emotionally Disturbed Youth and Families including Residential Treatment, Hospital, Juvenile Hall, Runaway Shelter and County Mental Health for over thirty years. Dr. Bennett also currently has a private practice in Lafayette, CA. where she specializes in trauma.

These courses meet the qualifications for 3BBS CEUs for LCSWs and MFTs as required by the California Board of Behavioral Sciences & is provided by Fred Finch Youth Center, Provider #3019.

This training is presented in partnership with Chabot Las Positas Community College and Alameda and Solano Counties.